

"Who's Who in Canada"

(Registered)

INCLUDING

The British Possessions in the Western Hemisphere

Comprising Newfoundland, Bermuda, Barbados, Trinidad,
British Guiana, Jamaica, The Bahamas

1922

AN ILLUSTRATED BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF MEN AND WOMEN OF THE TIME

Edited by

B. M. GREENE

Sixteenth Year of Issue

Publishers:

International Press Limited, Toronto

CANADIAN AGENTS:

Bodder & Stoughton Limited, Toronto

LONDON, ENG., AGENTS:

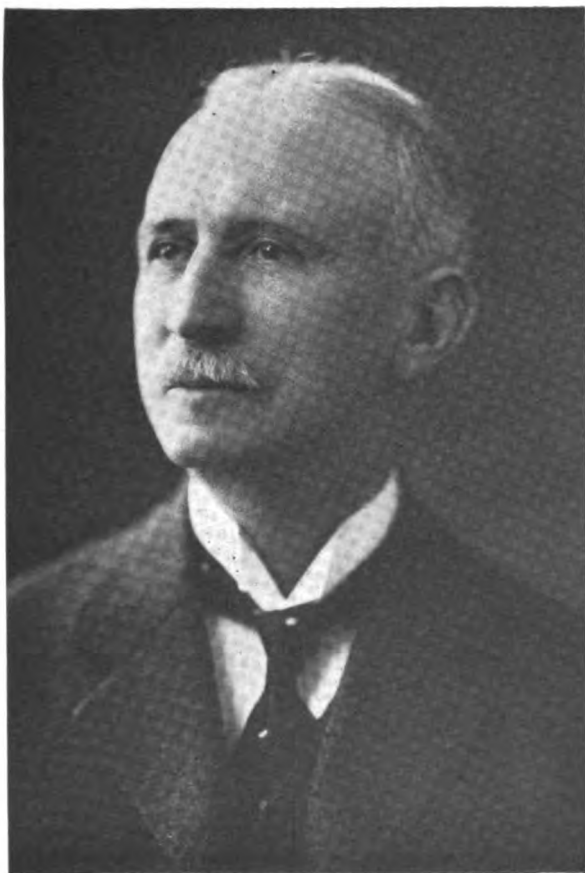

The Canadian Newspaper Co. Limited

110 St. Martin's Lane, W.C.2, London, Eng.

NEW YORK AGENTS:

Brentano's

5th Avenue, New York City

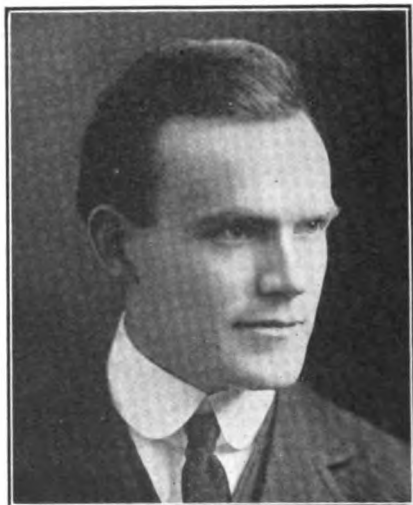

GEORGE HERRICK DUGGAN, LL.D., D.Sc.

DUGGAN, George Herrick, LL.D., D.Sc.—President, Dominion Bridge Company, Ltd.; President, Dominion Engineering Works, Ltd.; President, Robb Engineering Works, Ltd.; Director, Royal Bank of Canada; Director, Montreal Trust Company; Director, Steel Company of Canada; Director, Wayagamack Pulp and Paper Company; Director, Hillcrest Collieries; Director, Foundation Company; Director, Mount Royal Hotel Company. Was Chief Engineer of the St. Lawrence Bridge Company when that company designed and constructed the steel superstructure of the Quebec Bridge. Born Toronto, Sept. 6, 1862, only son of late John Duggan, Q.C., and Amelia (Tulloh) Duggan.

Educated: Upper Canada College; School of Practical Science; Toronto University (1883); post-graduate course (1884); Honorary Degree: LL.D., Queen's University and McGill University; D.S.C., Toronto University. Engineering Department, C.P.R., 1884-1886; Engineering Department, Dominion Bridge Co., 1886-1901; Chief Engineer, 1891-1901; Assistant to President and Consulting Engineer, Dominion Steel Co. and Dominion Coal Co., 1902-1903; 2nd Vice-President and General Manager, Dominion Coal Co., 1904-1910; 1910-1911, Chief Engineer Dominion Bridge Co., subsequently General Manager; Member of Council, The Institution of Civil Engineers, England;

WHO'S WHO IN CANADA

Member and Past President, Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, now Engineering Institute of Canada; Member, American Society Civil Engineers; Member, Canadian Mining Institution (Vice-President, 1906; Councillor, 1911-1913); one of the founders, Toronto Yacht and Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Clubs; Amateur Yacht Designer; designed and sailed winner "Seawanhaka" International Cup, 1896-1901; Captain, Toronto Yacht Club, 1883-1884; Commodore, Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, 1889-1890; Honorary Commodore, 1915 to date; Commodore, Royal Cape Breton Yacht Club, 1905-1910. Awarded Royal Humane Society's Bronze Medal and Certificate, 1893. Married Mildred Scarth, daughter of Pillans Stevenson, Montreal, Oct., 1888; had two sons and one daughter. One of his sons, H. S. Duggan, R.E., was killed in action, Oct. 21st, 1915; second son, Major K. L. Duggan, was killed in action, Oct. 30th, 1917. Clubs: Mount Royal; St. James'; University; Forest and Stream; Mount Bruno Country; Royal Montreal Golf; Royal St. Lawrence Yacht (Montreal); Royal Canadian Yacht (Toronto); Royal Cape Breton Yacht (Sydney); Royal Hamilton Yacht; Garrison (Quebec); Rideau (Ottawa). Recreations: Yachting, outdoor sports. Anglican. Residence: 120 McTavish Street, Montreal, Quebec.

ALFRED GORDON

HORNER, Dr. Ralph Joseph—Doctor of Music, Durham (England) University; Conductor, Composer, teacher of singing, piano, harmony, etc.; Member of Council, Canadian Guild of Organists; Choirmaster, St. Matthew's Church, Winnipeg; Conductor, Dr. Ralph Horner's Operatic Society. Born Newport, Monmouthshire, England, April 28, 1848, son of James and Sarah Horner. Educated: Leipsic Conservatorium of Music. Teacher of piano, singing and harmony, Camberwell, London, 1868; Conductor, Peckham Choral Society; Choirmaster, St. Mary's Church, Peckham; Conductor, English Opera Co., seven years; Conductor, Sullivan's Operas, ten years; Conductor, Operas at Alexandra Palace, London; went to live Nottingham, 1888; Conductor, Nottingham Amateur Orchestral Society; Nottingham Operatic Co.; Nottingham Philharmonic Choir; Lecturer, Music, Nottingham University, ten years; Choirmaster, Nottingham Central Mission; took degree of Bachelor of Music, Durham University, 1893; Doctor of Music, 1898; went to New York, 1906; came to Winnipeg, 1909, when offered directorship of Imperial Academy of Music and Arts; Conductor, Winnipeg Oratorio Society, 1909 to 1912; Bandmaster, 190th and 250th Overseas Battalions, 1916-17. Composer of following operas: "Confucius," 1888; "Amy Roebart," "Belles of Barcelona"; "A Fairy Overture"; Suite for orchestra in D Minor; "Intermezzo" for orchestra in B Major, six operettas; more than one hundred songs; several anthems and part songs; "St. Peter" and "David's First Victory"; serenade for piano and flute; sacred cantatas; "A Song of Prayer and Praise"; 23rd Psalm, for solo voices, 8 part chorus and orchestra; many piano pieces. Married Marianne Amelia Rowe, deceased, 1915, Newport, England, 1869; has three sons and one daughter; 2ndly, Sarah Lily Carter, 1920. Address: Suite 4, Sharpe Block, Winnipeg, Man.

GORDON, Alfred—Poet and critic. Born London, August 13th, 1888. Educated: Finsbury Technical College, London, England. Came to Canada in 1910, followed by his mother in 1912. Author of "Poems," published by The Musson Book Co., Ltd., Toronto, 1915; "Vimy Ridge and New Poems," published by Messrs. J. M. Dent and Sons, Toronto, 1918; has contributed poems and articles to "The University Magazine," "The Canadian Magazine," "MacLean's Magazine," "The Canadian Bookman," etc., notably "What is Poetry," "A Synthesis of Modern Criticism," in "The Canadian Bookman," April, 1919, based on Croce's "Aesthetic," also "The New Prosody—a Rejoinder," in "The Canadian Bookman," April, 1920. Residence: 68 Hillcrest Avenue, Montreal West, Que.

COTE, Hon. Jean Leon, C.E., M.E.D.L.S., M.L.A.—Provincial Secretary of Alberta. Of Cote & Pearson, Land Surveyors and Engineers, cor. Jasper Ave. and Howard St., Edmonton, Alta; President, North-west Trust Co. Born Les Eboulements, Que., May 6, 1867, son of Cleophas and Denise (Boudrault) Cote. Educated: Commercial Academy, Montmagny, Que.; Ottawa College. With Department of Interior, Ottawa, 1892-1900; on Staff, Alaska Boundary Survey, Summers, 1893-1895; on Government Survey Work, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia; legal surveying, Dawson, Y.T., 1900-1903; came to Edmonton, 1904. Elected to Alberta Legislature for Athabasca, 1909; elected for Grouard, 1913 and 1917; appointed Provincial Secretary, Sept. 5, 1918. Married Cecile Gagnon, 1907; has five sons. Liberal; Roman Catholic. Residence: 10024 Seventh St., Edmonton, Alta.